- * "to examine the status of the calendars of the courts . . .
- * "to make recommendations to the Supreme Court relating to the assignment of judges . . .
- * "to collect and compile statistical and other data, and make reports of the business transacted by the courts, and transmit the same to the Supreme Court to the end that such statistics and other data may be used in taking proper action in the administration of justice."

State of the Judiciary Message
Presented to the Michigan Legislature
March 18, 1980 by
Chief Justice Mary S. Coleman
Michigan Supreme Court

My experiences as Chief Justice with the Legislature have quickened my understanding of your burdens and my respect for your achievements.

I have long harbored the belief that if decent people run our government, we will have decent government. In the highest sense of the word, I have worked with many very decent people in leadership roles this year, so my expectations are high.

It even occurred to me that the situation in Michigan state government today is comparable to that which existed in the 1950's when my husband toiled under this dome as Senator and Majority Leader -- and when Michigan made significant progress in many areas.

Then my present colleague, G. Mennen Williams, was Governor and both Houses of the Legislature were dominated by the opposite political party. Although the division of voting strength was closer then, the major legislative accomplishments of that period were brought about by the combining of efforts of groups drawn from both sides of the aisle who then worked in close cooperation with the Governor.

For instance, such coalitions were able to lay out and launch construction of the modern free highway system of Michigan -- for many years referred to as the "Coleman Highways", incidentally. Amid great controversy, Lou Cramton's father in the House and my husband in the Senate led the successful fight to give Michigan its first Fair Employment Practices Act. Similarly, constructive forces were joined to squeak through the Mackinac Bridge bills and to rescue the project with the help of U.S. Senator Prentiss Brown (D) who was in New York to guide to success the critical and difficult financing arrangements.

The Administrative Procedures Act was passed then. The first foster care bills were passed and Michigan came from one of the lowest in the Nation to one of the highest in unemployment and worker's compensation benefits of that day. Five mental hospitals -- desperately needed at the time -- were authorized and built. Wayne State University was born.

I could go on and on. But the bottom line of all this is that the political party alignments of that period are reversed in the present era of state government. Where the Executive then was in Democratic hands, the Legislature then was predominately Republican, today just the opposite relationship prevails.

And so, facing the 1980s, it seems to me there exists a great opportunity for political forces of any persuasion to coalesce, even as then, to bring about statesmanlike answers to problems that have defied solution heretofore.

In saying this, I am not unmindful of the very considerable achievements wrought in recent legislative sessions under present leadership. I only wish to stress anew, as our fast-changing world moves into a new decade, that the times urgently demand a high order of vision and wisdom on the part of us all.

It was ten years ago, on March 8, 1971, that the late Thomas Matthew Kavanagh stood here to inaugurate the present series of annual "State of the Judiciary" addresses. His purpose, shared by the legislative leaders who invited him, was to promote closer harmony between the Judicial and Legislative branches. I devoutly hope that this objective will be advanced today and by all who succeed us in these separate but interdependent branches of government.

To our mutual benefit, in times of much stress and rapid change in society, the court system, with legislative support, generally has kept pace with the demands placed upon it.

In some respects, this has meant more of things. For the state it has meant primarily more trial judges. For the local units of government, it has meant more staff, more equipment, more space, more supplies and services, more money.

And yet, despite creditable progress, some of the nagging, bedrock problems of ten years ago still trouble the Judiciary.

In simplest terms, they focus on two recurring themes. One is bringing to the antiquated, chronically troubled court systems of Detroit and Wayne County the advantages enjoyed by the rest of the state. The other is shifting the onerous ever-growing burden of financing court operations from the struggling counties and other local funding units to the state.

Partly because of Governor Milliken's willingness to address these issues in financial terms, they were placed as priority items on the legislative agenda last year. They are still before you.

The late Thomas Matthew Kavanagh was right ten years ago, in urging prompt action. Governor Milliken was right last year when he adopted the cause. My colleagues and I are right, I wholeheartedly believe, in endorsing these objectives. I commend them to you now.

If the goals are so meritorious, what is the hold-up? I am frequently asked.

The issues, neither of them, have a simple answer and some of your leadership are working exceedingly hard to resolve difficult portions of these monumental undertakings.

Obviously, a shift to state financing of the entire court system presents a most forbidding budget problem. Serious proposals directed to this end contemplate some sort of phasing. The Governor has spoken of an across the board four-to-five year phase-in, and this concept won recognition and preliminary approval by this Legislature in 1979. I refer to Section 38 of PA 111, the General Government appropriation for the current fiscal year.

As I told the Michigan Association of Counties in February, the question is fast-becoming not whether there will be state financing but when it will come, and on what terms.

In my assessment, the limited financial resources of the counties make it imperative to eliminate so far as practical the steeply rising expenses of paying for a state-imposed court system. As you are aware, of the three branches of government, the Judicial branch is the only one not funded by the state. It is, however, subject to all legislative and judicial requirements demanding the outlay of money by the local units.

Consider: Since I began my judicial career in 1961, the number of circuit judges alone in Michigan has nearly doubled -- from 81 to 156.

Taking the multiplication of circuit judges as a symbol of the tropical growth in litigational activity, think for a moment of what the figure in reality means to county budgetmakers.

Imagine, for one, the creation of 75 new circuit courtrooms, fully prepared to conduct trials. Think of the equipment entailed, the support manpower including expensive professionals, the supplies, the sheer volume of paper. Think, for a moment, of the ancillary services dictated by modern concepts in society -- the Friend of the Court function, the travel, the clerical help, process serving, juvenile court requirements, legal representation, the greatly increased costs of commitments of the mentally ill and much more.

All of this had added greatly to the heavy financial load borne by counties. More of the same looms for the future. The recent state assumption of additional probation costs will be very helpful, especially to Wayne County and Detroit. As a whole, however, it is no wonder that in some counties the commissioners and the judges increasingly find themselves at loggerheads over how to pay the bills, and allocate scarce resources.

Such considerations as these lead me to conclude that in time the counties are, almost in unison, going to hammer at the legislative door demanding relief, and in all probability receive it.

What then of the other major concern, the Detroit/Wayne County court restructuring problem?

Let me point out that the difficulties enumerated on this podium in 1971 have not only increased in severity, born of demands springing from numerical factors, but are exacerbated by the broadened horizon of expectations of courts in this rapidly changing world. We not only are expected to resolve disputes but to devise cures for all of society's perceived ills.

We travel from one crisis to the next, apparently without end.

Attributable in major part to splendid legislative response in 1977-1978, a dismaying breakdown in Detroit Recorder's Court, which handles one-third of Michigan's felony cases, was vigorously tackled and overcome.

This was a "crash" rescue program. Reinforcements in money, manpower and know-how were marshaled. A heavy backlog in trials, stockpiling of defendants in jail, release of dangerous offenders for lack of space to confine them, staff demoralization -- all these were brought under effective control, although not without considerable cost.

Regretably, I must report that even now -- long after stabilization was achieved -- judicial manpower in Recorder's Court still is being supplemented by the equivalent of three judges assigned from elsewhere every week and paid out of the Supreme Court budget. Hopefully, the need for reinforcements will end when the second trio of additional judges authorized by the Legislature in 1978 finally is elected this November. The first three new judgeships were filled in the fall election of 1978.

Then last fall came the breakdown in Wayne County Juvenile Court -- the headlines about boys and girls entrusted to the court's care and then assertedly "lost" by the score. Well, it was not quite that way but it was another crisis -- now effectively resolved with months of assistance by the Supreme Court Administrator's Office and specifically by former Probate and Juvenile Court Judge Russell Baugh with highly qualified staff and very cooperative judges.

In Traffic and Ordinance Division of Recorder's Court -- another crisis. Remedial steps began there last summer, and now we have hired the leader of the Felony Division rescue to search for a lasting solution.

The Supreme Court budget also has been charged with the difference between the pay of Common Pleas and Wayne County Circuit Court judges for over one year to diminish the backlog of cases under $10,000 filed improperly in circuit court. There is only one there at this time.

I will not dwell on exasperating delays, shoddy facilities and other frustrations that beleaguer Wayne County courts.

You all know, of course, that one common denominator in each situation is governmental poverty in Detroit and Wayne County, malnutrition of the treasury, you might say. But it takes its toll in court operations as it does in the rest of local government.

How can we resolve these problems? I have no blueprint. Given budgetary support by the Executive branch, it is essentially -- it has been and it remains -- a challenge for the Legislature.

Ten years ago, the same message I bring you today about the urgent need to reorganize the courts of Wayne County was delivered from this podium.

Little has changed since my predecessor as Chief Justice stood on this rostrum and declared, to your predecessors, that (I quote): "The problems are imminent and require prompt legislative resolution."

Now I say this not out of any sense of remonstrance to the Legislature. My only purpose is to make this point: Here is a tough nut to crack. It is a legislative problem. It has defied cracking for a long time. It must be cracked, sooner or later. There never is an ideal time for such a difficult task. But now is as good a time as we are likely to see.

There has been understandable uneasiness on the part of judges and employees of the courts in Detroit and Wayne County as to how any reorganization might affect their interests. Understandably, they want reassurance.

Primarily, this is a matter of definition of public policy through legislation.

However, the Headlee amendment, whatever may appear on the November ballot, the state of the economy -- all these overhang the future.

In short, there is a volatility to our times that breeds one change after another, often with effects that a Solomon could not foresee.

My conclusion is that we must not allow the predictable uncertainty of tomorrow to paralyze decision-making today. You and I -- all of us -- are bound in the offices we hold to exert the best leadership we know how, today, tomorrow and the next day, with the knowledge and resources available.

It is the peculiar genius of Americans, born of our pioneer heritage, to push forward steadily and confidently into uncharted territory.

Concededly, the Supreme Court must exercise significant administrative authority over the internal workings of the judicial system. But that authority is not central to the jurisdictional (reorganization) issue -- any more than the Governor's budget recommendations are central to legislative spending power.

Each branch of government -- Legislative, Judicial, Executive -- is allocated a primary band of responsibility, subject to checks and balances of the other two.

Let me dwell for a moment on my own branch.

The Judicial, which is frequently called the weakest branch, needs relative shelter from the gusty winds of public policy formulation -- the proper arena of legislators and the Executive.

From us in the courts the public wants, and has a right to expect, fairness, impartiality and a detachment from violent swings of factional clamor and political pressure.

A trusted, continuously available and neutral form for prompt settlement is indispensable where fundamental rights of liberty and property are in dispute. Such a forum, in a sense, is the very backbone of a healthy society.

When the courts cease to function -- whether because financing breaks down or other reason -- the fabric of the social order quickly unravels. Assaultive conduct in the streets and homes goes uncontained, save for police action. Children and widows go without support. Contracts are broken with impunity, and commerce is reduced to chaos.

These are sobering thoughts. I do not like to bring them up. But in the light of last fall's financial crisis in Wayne County, with the threat of shutting down

-- or partially shutting down court operations -- it seems necessary to give the question at least passing mention. I hope we are not going to face a repetition this year.

Turning for a moment to brighter topics, let me report that some of the recent legislative initiatives to improve functioning of the courts appear to be working out well.

Decriminalization of most traffic offenses, effective last August, has lifted the stigma from thousands of Michigan residents who have committed minor transgressions with motor vehicles.

Administrators report that in Detroit, particularly, inconvenience has been lessened, the specter of jail removed and a goodly number of offenders are utilizing the "responsible with explanation" plea that permits a recital of extenuating circumstances which accompanied the ticketing.

The one-jury, one-trial system continues to show encouraging results in the more populous counties. However, a hitch in obtaining anticipated federal funds has slowed jury assistance there and in out-state areas.

Early reports on the new Probate Code are favorable. Given the scope and complexity of change in this area, I expect that experience will reveal some need for minor adjustments.

Inequities in prison sentences long have troubled judges, penologists and others keenly interested in the correctional process. A task force led by Justice Moody of our Court has been working for some time to devise a sensible approach to greater uniformity. This is an age-old and most difficult problem.

The volume of litigation reaching our Supreme Court continues its relentless rise. In the last 10 years, it has tripled and an estimated 1,850 cases will be filed with us this year.

We are grateful for your fine budget support that has allowed the necessary staff build-up to deal with the problem. As I reported last year, we mounted our own successful "crash" program in order to catch up. We have maintained our equilibrium, I am pleased to say. Every opinion which is due has been filed -- at the cost of most nights and weekends.

I will not bore you with the detail but suffice it to say that the Court is nearing the end -- hopefully -- of a five-year-effort to re-codify, simplify and modernize the Michigan Rules of Civil Procedure. To the non-lawyers among you, this is the equivalent of publishing a 500 page book of material comparable in wit and charm to the fine print in an installment sales contract.

In similar vein, we have, after much effort, agreed on and published rules to implement the new Probate Code and Revised Standard Jury Instructions dovetailing with appropriate legislative acts and case law.

So you see, judicial duties, not unlike legislative duties, have their share of what might be called -- for lack of a better word -- intellectual drudgery.

Turning to another phase of administration, steps are being taken, with federal financial help through our Judicial Coordinating Committee, chaired by Chief Judge Robert J. Danhof, to deal with the woeful inadequacy of housing for some courts.

As to court facilities at the Capitol, I respectfully suggest that you consider the feasibility of a study toward an eventual state court building for the appellate courts and State Court Administrator's office. When the Supreme Court was removed from the Capitol, it supposedly was temporary in nature until such a building could be constructed. Plans were drawn for a site owned by the state -- but then came hard financial times, even as today. We are terribly cramped. Most Justices have only cubby-holes for offices in Lansing and the Administrator is inconveniently some blocks removed.

Planning today for the future seems to be the theme of these remarks -- but the future soon will be today.

My role of Chief Justice on this occasion is primarily that of spokeswoman for the Supreme Court. However, some leeway is allowed and I would like, as a final note, to offer a suggestion that is especially my own, although I am confident of agreement from my colleagues.

The time is right, it appears to me, for the Legislature to offer the people by Joint Resolution an opportunity to remedy an oversight in Article 1, Section 2 of the 1963 State Constitution.

That is one of the Declaration of Rights provisions. Specifically it is the provision setting forth constitutional guarantees against discrimination in exercise of civil or political rights for reasons of religion, race, color or national origin.

In the context of the times, I believe Michigan should add the word "sex" to the catalog of categories constitutionally protected against discrimination.

I am aware, of course, of the Civil Rights Commission's vigilance in monitoring discrimination against women. However, until recently, it had not occurred to me that the duties of the Civil Rights Commission as stated in Article V, Section 29 of the 1963 Constitution also are confined to matters of "alleged discrimination against any person because of religion, race, color or national origin".

I offer this recommendation essentially for its symbolic value. Michigan, in my judgment, stands in the forefront of the states when it comes to enlightened principles of equal protection. The Legislature and the Judiciary can be proud of zealously in this entire field.

And yet, students of constitutional law, in New York, Colorado, California, you name it, are even today regaled by a case arising in Michigan under our existing Constitution as an example of deprivation of equal rights for women under attitudes that prevailed in society thirty years ago.

In the oft-cited classic case, Goesaert v Cleary, 355 US 464 (1948), the United States Supreme Court upheld a Michigan statute which made a woman ineligible for licensing as a bartender unless she was the wife or daughter of the male owner of the establishment.

The statute then challenged is no longer on our books. And yet, as things stand, there is no constitutional barrier to its reinstatement.

Although, as a matter of policy, I believe restraint is commendable in Constitutional changes, this suggestion would result only in the addition of one word to keep pace with the reality of practice and of statutes already in place.

In conclusion, I express my gratitude on behalf of the Judiciary for the cooperation you have regularly extended to us. And to this, I add a personal note of gratitude for the courtesies consistently shown to me by legislative committees and individuals.

So long as members of each branch of government -- the Legislative, Judicial and Executive -- treat each other with consideration and respect, the people of Michigan, our employers, will be well served.

None of us has a monopoly on wisdom and virtue. And so to the extent that we combine our talents and inspirations, the public life will be that much more enriched.

Thank you very much.

The Court completed 1,517 cases in the year ending 6/30/80, the fifth successive all-time record. That is 244% more than were completed 11 years ago or, stated another way, it is 3.44 times as many as were completed then.

Notwithstanding this extraordinary and sustained record of achievement the number of cases pending (under consideration but not completed) is 3.86 times as many as 11 years ago because new cases filed have increased by numbers greater than the completions.

CASES COMPLETED= Court work completed, jurisdiction relinquished.

COMPLETED BY OPINIONS= Self-explanatory.

FINAL ORDERS WITHOUT OPINIONS. These are orders issued in response to an application for leave to appeal, pursuant to GCR 1963, 852.2(4)(g) or 853.2(4), reversing, reversing in part, affirming, remanding for specific proceedings, etc., without formal opinion but with specific reasons stated in the order, for the action taken. There is no oral argument in these cases. This is a more summary procedure than the leave granted process which, because it involves printed briefs, oral arguments and formal opinions, takes approximately 15 months longer to complete a case.

DENIALS OF LEAVE TO APPEAL. In general an appeal as of right to the Court of Appeals exists with regard to final judgments of the lower courts. Const 1963, Art IV, § 4, and GCR 1963, 852.1 and 853.1 vest the Supreme Court with the discretion to deny a further appeal.

DISMISSALS & WITHDRAWALS. Of the few cases in this category, most are dismissed or withdrawn by the action and consent of both parties. Ten percent are dismissed by the Court on motion charging failure to diligently pursue the appeal.

* GRANTS. Orders granting leave to appeal do not complete Court action on a case. Therefore, they are not included as case completions. The number of the orders granting leave to appeal each year is compared, as a percentage, to the totals of columns B, C and D, not including A. Thus the percentage accurately reflects the proportion of grants made to applications for leave to appeal acted upon. In all opinion cases, a grant order was issued but usually not in the same year the opinion was issued.

III TYPES OF CASES FILED WITH THE SUPREME COURT

Of the 1,850 cases filed with the Supreme Court last year, 1,770 or 96% were applications for leave to appeal from decisions made by the Court of Appeals, or prisoners' requests for relief from decisions of that Court, which are considered in much the same manner as applications for leave to appeal. The other 80 cases filed last year, 4% of the total, consisted of the following kinds of actions: 33 applications for leave to appeal prior to decision by the Court of Appeals; 2 claims of appeals from State Bar Grievance Board decisions; 3 applications for leave to appeal from Attorney Discipline Board decisions; 38 complaints for superintending control relative to Grievance Board or Board of Law Examiner matters; 2 requests for advisory opinions from the Governor or Legislature; 2 Judicial Tenure Commission cases. This ratio, 96% applications for leave to appeal after decision by the Court of Appeals and 4% all other categories, is the same as last year and has been relatively constant since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965.

Of the 1,850 cases filed, 1,093 or 59% were criminal cases and 757 or 41% were civil cases. Since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965 the ratio of criminal and civil cases, preponderating on either side, has stayed within the limits of 6 to 4.

IV MOTIONS

With the exception of the column concerning grants in the table in section II, all of the foregoing concerns case completions and final orders of the Court. In addition the Court issues about 1,000 orders per year now which do not complete its action but are necessary toward that end: e.g., motions to dismiss, to affirm, to cross appeal, to limit issues, to strike, for emergency consideration, for bail, to extend time, to tax or not tax certain costs, for rehearing, for reconsideration, etc.

V ADMINISTRATIVE WORK

The Court's administrative workload has more than tripled in the last 12 years. This work stems largely from the Court's responsibility for superintending the judicial system. In 1969 only 15 formal administrative orders were issued. In 1980, 69 such orders were issued and in 1979 and 1978, respectively, 39 and 76 such orders were issued. No requests for advisory opinions were received from the Executive or Legislature in 1969 and less than one per year prior to 1972. Now the average is three per year. The resistant problems of trial court congestion demand ever more direct attention, particularly in major metropolitan areas. This past year large amounts of time have been spent on Wayne County Court Reorganization, the subject of sentence review, and preparations for a complete revision of the General Court Rules.

VI CONCLUSION

The Court has searched for every conceivable means to cope with the problems stemming from the more than threefold increase in its case and administrative workloads. It has enlarged its staff; utilized the most efficient equipment; and adopted procedures to complete more cases and to complete them sooner. In the year ended 6/30/80 the Court issued 2,333 orders; 1,517 final orders and 816 orders on motions and administrative matters. With trivial exceptions, each Justice must act upon each order. Thus in the year ended 6/30/80, each Justice had to reach a decision about and participate in the issuance, on average, of 9 orders per day every weekday of the year. The Court will continue to seek greater efficiency in its operation, to achieve greater production without a reduction of the quality of the decisions made, but it is believed that the Court is at or close to the limit of its capacity.

COURT OF APPEALS

The Constitution
State of Michigan
Article VI Sec. 8

"The court of appeals shall consist initially of nine judges who shall be nominated and elected at non-partisan elections from districts drawn on county lines and as nearly as possible of equal population, as provided by law. The supreme court may prescribe by rule that the court of appeals sit in divisions and for the terms of court and the times and places thereof. Each such division shall consist of not fewer than three judges. The number of judges comprising the court of appeals may be increased, and the districts from which they are elected may be changed by law."

ANNUAL REPORT
COURT OF APPEALS

(Chief Clerk Ronald L. Dzierbicki, of the Court of Appeals reports that the statistics for calendar years 1978 and 1979 are not verifiable and are expected to change when a final audit is possible. At the beginning of the fourth quarter of 1978, the Court of Appeals converted all records from a manual to an automated system. Because of other priorities, the Chief Clerk said it has been impossible to fully implement and verify the statistical module on the computer system. As a result, certain programming and data entry errors have not been eliminated--for example, the program does not count consolidated cases, and certain coded orders have not been programmed to close out an appeal. Therefore, the statistics presented here represent minimum figures which can be expected to increase when the statistical module is complete.)

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

The Michigan Constitution, 1963, Art. 6, Sec. 23 and RIA Sec. 225, 226, 306, 825 and 8212, as amended, authorize assignment of Judges from one court to another either by direct order of the Supreme Court or through the State Court Administrator.

Judicial vacancies occur during the year due to retirement, death or serious illness which require an assignment to fill the vacancy on a temporary basis. Often it is necessary to provide temporary assistance to a court which is experiencing a sudden increase in trial work, or a series of lengthy trials. Assignments are also made when a court is behind in its work, or when a case requires disqualification of a particular judge or an entire bench.

In most instances, assignments to the Court of Appeals or the Circuit, District or Probate Courts are made without regard to whether the assigned judge regularly sits on that court. For example, it is not unusual for a Probate Judge to be assigned to a Circuit Court, District to Circuit, Circuit to Court of Appeals, etc. This flexibility provides more efficient use of the most precious commodity in court administration: judge time.

Assignments of retired or former judges to all courts except the probate court require expenditure of state funds for payment of the state portion of the assigned judge's compensation and expenses. The balance of the assigned judge's compensation is the responsibility of local governmental units and is paid from local funds.

Assignments of incumbent "sitting" judges to any court, and assignments of retired or former judges to the probate courts, are wholly funded under the law by the local governmental units and thus require no state expenditure.

MICHIGAN
JUDICIAL TENURE COMMISSION

ANNUAL REPORT

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

COMMISSION PURPOSE

The Judicial Tenure Commission was created in 1968, by Constitutional amendment and since that time has acted pursuant to the authority vested in it through General Court Rule 932, as amended.

The nine-member Commission, through its staff, receives and confidentially investigates complaints of misconduct regarding judges at virtually every level of the State Judiciary. Many of the complaints after preliminary investigation are found to be without merit; many others are disposed of through private admonition of the individual judge; in serious cases, the Commission is empowered to issue formal charges and conduct public hearings and, upon a finding of judicial misconduct, to recommend the imposition of discipline by the Supreme Court. In its 11-year history, the Commission has found it necessary to issue formal complaints in only 23 instances, underscoring the careful consideration such an important step receives.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

The Commission may undertake an investigation of a grievance:

1. Upon receiving a sworn statement alleging judicial misconduct;
2. On its own motion upon receiving information appearing to the Commission to warrant investigation;
3. Upon receipt of a Request for Investigation from the Attorney Grievance Commission; or
4. Upon request of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or the State Court Administrator.

Several procedural steps are required to be taken before a recommendation of discipline or removal can be made to the Supreme Court. Before any formal complaint can be filed against a judge, the Commission is required to notify the judge, in writing and in confidence, of the nature of the charges and the judge must be allowed a reasonable opportunity to respond. The Commission must then consider the judge's reply and determine whether or not to bring formal charges by the filing of a formal complaint.

After a formal complaint is filed and served on the respondent judge, he or she has 15 days to file an answer to the charges made in the formal complaint. The complaint, answer and all subsequent proceedings are public, and open to public inspection.

After the filing of a judge's answer, a hearing must be held by the Commission on the charges. This is a fact-finding hearing at which the evidence in support of the charges is presented by the Commission's Examiner, usually the Executive Director or a staff attorney. The judge, or counsel, is entitled to cross-examine all witnesses and to present evidence in defense of the charges.

Normally, the hearing is held before a Master, or fact-finder appointed by the Supreme Court. The Respondent Judge must be given at least 20 days notice before the hearing is held on the complaint.

The Master, within 30 days after the hearing, must report to the Commission setting forth findings of fact and conclusions of law. Upon the filing of the Master's report, either party has 15 days in which to file objections to the Master's report. If such objections are filed, the Commission must hold a hearing to allow the examiner or the judge's counsel to present arguments in support of the objections. After the hearing, the Commission must consider the evidence and determine whether to make a disciplinary recommendation to the Supreme Court, or to dismiss the complaint without further action.

If the Commission recommends disciplinary action to the Supreme Court, the Commission's factual and legal findings in regard to the complaint are filed with the recommendation.

After the Commission's recommendation is received by the Supreme Court, the Respondent Judge has 30 days in which to file objections to the recommendation of the Commission. Thereafter, the case is heard on the record made at the hearing before the Master and is reviewed in its entirety by the Supreme Court in the same manner as a civil action on appeal, with briefs filed by both sides, oral argument and review by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court, in its decision, can accept, reject or modify the Commission's recommendation. In its determination, the Supreme Court can exercise its constitutional power to discipline a judge by directing censure, suspension, retirement or removal from office or such sanction as it deems appropriate.

MICHIGAN
ATTORNEY GRIEVANCE COMMISSION

State of Michigan
Attorney Grievance Commission

The Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission and the Attorney Discipline Board were created by the Supreme Court October 1, 1978. The Commission is, pursuant to GCR 1963, 957.1, the prosecution arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The offices of the Commission are located in the Marquette Building, 243 W. Congress, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

The Commission consists of seven persons who serve without compensation and are appointed as follows:

Three lawyers appointed by the Supreme Court; two public members appointed by the Supreme Court; two lawyers appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

Chapter 95 of the General Court Rules governs the conduct of attorney disciplinary proceedings.

Any person may file a request for investigation of a grievance against an attorney with the Grievance Administrator and the Grievance Administrator may file a request for investigation where necessary. The filing of a request for investigation initiates the grievance process.

Following the filing of a request for investigation, the Grievance Administrator must determine whether there exists a prima facie allegation of professional misconduct, i.e., a violation of General Court Rule 953. The Grievance Administrator may reject the request for investigation, or he may conduct an investigation. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the Administrator recommends to the Commission that (1) the matter should be closed as there is not provable evidence of professional misconduct sufficient to sustain the burden of proof at a disciplinary proceeding, or (2) that authorization should be granted for the issuance of a formal complaint.

In the Commission's calendar year, October 1, 1979 to September 30, 1980, a total of 3,231 requests for investigation were filed, as compared to 2,578 for the previous year. This represented an increase of over 25%. Of the 3,231 grievances received, 1,851 were rejected by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to GCR 1963, 961.3; 924 were closed by the Commission pursuant to GCR 1963, 963.1(2); 350 were closed administratively; 66 resulted in confidential admonishments, and 189 were authorized by the Commission for formal proceedings.

Assisting the full-time professional staff in the investigation function are some 197 volunteer investigators. The volunteer investigators are members of the State Bar of Michigan who perform this public service on behalf of the Commission. They are reimbursed only for actual out-of-pocket expenses. Approximately 10% of the formal investigations are referred to the volunteer investigators.

ANNUAL REPORT

State of Michigan

Attorney Grievance Commission

In prosecuting formal complaints before Hearing Panels of the Attorney Discipline Board (the Supreme Court's adjudicative agency for attorney discipline) the Administrator and his professional staff are assisted by some 139 volunteer counsel, who, like the volunteer investigators, are members of the State Bar of Michigan who donate their services to the Commission. Approximately 15% of the litigated matters are referred to volunteer counsel.

LITIGATION

Upon authorization by the members of the Commission, the Grievance Administrator prepares and files a complaint with the Attorney Discipline Board. The Grievance Administrator is the party-petitioner to every formal charge of misconduct.

Hearings on charges of misconduct are held before three-lawyer hearing panels of the Attorney Discipline Board. The hearings are open to the public. The Grievance Administrator is required to prove his case by a preponderance of the evidence and the respondent may retain counsel, cross-examine witnesses, and present evidence in his own behalf. The practice and procedure employed in non-jury civil cases are applicable to disciplinary proceedings as are the Michigan Rules of Evidence.

Upon conclusion of the hearings, if the panel finds that the Administrator has failed to prove misconduct by a preponderance of the evidence, the case against the respondent must be dismissed. If the panel concludes that professional misconduct has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the panel must enter an order of discipline, either reprimanding, suspending or disbarring the respondent. A suspension or disbarment disqualifies the respondent from the practice of law, whereas a reprimand is in the nature of a public censure. All discipline in Michigan is a matter of public record. (An admonishment issued by the Commission is confidential and is an administrative warning not constituting discipline.)

Any party may appeal an order of a hearing panel as of right to the Attorney Discipline Board, and may seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court from an order of the Attorney Discipline Board.

FUNDING

The budget for the Attorney Grievance Commission for the fiscal year, October 1, 1979 - September 30, 1980 was $422,213.00. Pursuant to General Court Rule 954, the entire expenses of the Commission were paid by the State Bar of Michigan. No public tax dollars were employed in the funding of the Commission's operations.
